Dear Mr Mohd Yusof

I am pleased to advise you that the minor corrections to your thesis have been completed to the satisfaction of the internal examiner. As a result, I am able to confirm that the degree of Doctor of Philosophy can be awarded.

COPIES OF YOUR THESIS: In accordance with University Regulations you are required to submit one hardbound copy and an electronic copy of your final approved thesis by 15 August 2016, otherwise your degree cannot be formally conferred on you.

* Hardbound copy:

It is your responsibility to submit a hardbound copy of your final approved thesis to the University bound in accordance with the requirements as set out in the Guide to Presenting your Thesis:

<https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/graduateschool/rsa/presentingyourthesis.aspx>

Information on how to arrange the hard binding on your thesis can be found at:

<http://birmingham.thesisonline.co.uk/>

A signed author's declaration form (available from:

<https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/graduateschool/rsa/submittingyourthesis.aspx>) should be bound in the front of the thesis.

Please also check with your school/department and supervisor whether they also require a hardbound copy of your thesis.

* Electronic copy:

For details on how to submit the electronic copy of your final approved thesis see:

<http://etheses.bham.ac.uk/deposit.html#steps> or contact ubira@lists.bham.ac.uk or telephone 0121 414 3397.

DEGREE CONGREGATIONS: The next Degree Congregations will be held in December 2016.

- * The deadline for returning your degree congregation choice is 15 October for December congregations and 1 March for July congregations.
- * If you have already returned a Degree Congregation Choice form, we will proceed with your wishes, the degree being conferred on you either in person or in your absence, or deferred.
- * If you have not yet indicated your degree congregation choice or if you wish to check your choice, please visit www.my.bham.ac.uk and click on the "My Progress" tab followed by the link to Degree Congregations. To use my.bham.ac.uk you will need your student username and password.

- * If you have indicated that you wish to receive your degree certificate in person, you will receive further details, including gown hire, well in advance of the date of the congregations (early May for July congregations and early November for December congregations).
- * For further information please see <https://intranet.birmingham.ac.uk/as/studentservices/graduation/index.aspx>.

Your formal registration with the University has now ceased and as a result you will no longer be able to use University facilities, such as the Library as a student. Information regarding access to your student IT account can be found at:
